

South Dakota

from Spiritscapes (A South Dakota Cantata)

Music by Bruce Roter (ASCAP)

Lyrics by Carla Fauske

1 C F dm7 G7 C
Your heart will call you home to South Da-ko - ta, to cities, towns, and qu - wel-come trav' - lers home to South Da-ko - ta, Where seasons change and neigh -

7 F BbM7 G7 C F BbM7 G7
let coun - try lanes. Em - brace the earth and sky of South Da-ko - ta, a - bors lend a hand. How blessed we are to live in South Da-ko - ta, to

14 C F dm7 G7 1 | C G7 C
mid the soaring hills and rol-ling plains. We know the grace and glo - ry of this land. This is a land of migh-ty storms and gen-tle summer showers, with fields of gold-en wav - ing wheat and

22 Bb a Bb 3

28 C Db Eb
sim - ple prair - ie flowers. A land of si - lent snow - y nights with frost - y dawns a - glow,

33 D G G7 C
Where laugh-ing wat-ers fall and flow with room for dreams to grow We wel-come trav' - lers home

39 F Bb G7 C F
to South Da-ko - ta, South Da-ko - ta, where sea - sons change and neigh - bors lend a hand.

44 Bb G7 C F Bb G
How blessed we are to live in South Da - ko - ta, South Da - ko - ta, to know the grace and glo - ry of this land. To know the grace and glo - ry of this land!

50 C G7 C C G7 C